

ethnographic terminalia exhibition as residency

chicago
2013

gallery encounter

November 18 - 22, 2013

Arts Incubator in Washington Park

Second Floor Project Flex Space
301 E. Garfield Boulevard, Chicago, IL 60637

Exhibition Hours

M | W | TR: 12-3pm

F | : 12-6pm

Reception & Closing Event

Friday November 22, 2013

6-9pm

Exhibition as Residency Roundtable

Date: Friday November 22, 2013

Time: 4-5:30pm

To bring a critical conversation to “Exhibition as Residency”, this roundtable discussion encourages the 2013 residents, local communities, and the public to reflect on the works produced at the intersection of art and anthropology in the gallery space.

Special Guests include:

Monique Scott

(American Museum of Natural History, NYC)

Rodderick Coover

(Associate Professor, Temple University)

Robert Peterson

(Arist, Curator, NYC)

Ethnographic Terminalia is an initiative that brings artists and anthropologists together to engage in emerging research through exhibition.

Exhibition as Residency is an installation of several international collaborative projects that visitors are invited to interact with in the gallery. Join us in exploring what lies within and beyond the disciplinary territories of art and anthropology, and how collaborations can shape new communities and representations of cultural practice.

For more information visit:

www.ethnographicterminalia.org/2013galleryencounters